

SingUnited International

Code of Conduct

The SingUnited International Code of Conduct is intended to promote a positive, uplifting culture within our regions, choruses or quartets, and throughout the Organization. As representatives of SingUnited International, members should exemplify conduct which accords respect and dignity to fellow members and everyone with whom they come into contact.

Members of SingUnited International commit to:

1. Uphold and live by the SingUnited Mission Statement, Vision Statement, and Guiding Principles.
2. Act with integrity and conduct themselves in a professional manner while representing their region, chorus, quartet, and/or SingUnited International.
3. Communicate in a manner that reflects the respect and harmony promoted in the Organization's Guiding Principles.
4. Treat fellow singers, guests, and those in the community with care, dignity, and respect.
5. Be courteous and considerate of the opinions of other members, representatives, and staff.
6. Resolve issues with fairness through listening and healthy communication in an atmosphere of respect, positivity, and possibility.
7. Adhere to the rules and guidelines of SingUnited International, including those defined in the Organization's Policies, Bylaws, Handbooks, Regional Handbooks, and Chapter Guide.

Ratified by the International Board of Directors – October 2020

Updated April 1, 2026