SingUnited International – Member Code of Conduct

The SingUnited International Code of Conduct is intended to promote a positive, uplifting culture within our regions, choruses or quartets, and throughout the Organization. As affiliates, you are representatives of SingUnited International, and all members should exemplify conduct which accords respect and dignity to fellow members and everyone with whom they come into contact.

Members (and affiliates) of SingUnited International commit to:

1. Uphold and live by the SingUnited Mission Statement, Vision Statement, and Guiding Principles.
2. Act with integrity and conduct themselves in a professional manner while representing their region, chorus, quartet and/or SingUnited International.
3. Communicate in a manner that reflects the respect and harmony promoted in the Organization's Guiding Principles.
4. Treat fellow singers, guests, and those in the community with care, dignity, and respect.
5. Be courteous and considerate of the opinions of other members, representatives, and staff.
6. Resolve issues with fairness through listening and healthy communication in an atmosphere of respect, positivity, and possibility.
7. Adhere to the rules and guidelines of SingUnited International, including those defined in the Organization's Policies, Bylaws**, Handbooks, Regional Handbooks, and Chapter Guide.

*Liability insurance is available for purchase upon request if necessary. Liability insurance is required.

**Youth Affiliate Choruses are not required to adhere to SingUnited's Corporate Bylaws, including our membership eligibility.
